

USA Dance Oswego Chapter 3057
ARGENTINE TANGO WORKSHOPS

Pre-Registration Required

FRIDAY APRIL 17 AND APRIL 24
with Very Special Guest Instructors:

VATAN KOC AND GEORGIA AHRENS

Vatan Koc, a native of Turkey, has been teaching and performing since 2000 in the United States. Georgia Ahrens, his wife and (one of his first students), has been his dance partner and co-teacher since 2004. Their training, initially from Baila Tango - an international Argentine Tango organization, has been influenced by instruction from Caroline and Diego, Mariana Galassi, Guillarmina Quiroga, Mariela Franganillo, Ney Melo, Facundo and Kely, Pablo Pugliese, Pablo Veron, Cecilia Gonzalez, Bulent and Marika.

They create a fun, nurturing learning environment and their teaching style emphasizes strong leading and following techniques and body mechanics. More information can be found at www.SyracuseTango.com.

April 17th Weight changes and syncopations (all levels): This is an important class teaches technique for dancers of all levels. The concepts taught will lay the groundwork for the following workshop. 7:00-8:15
